

2026 Ford Off-Road Adventures

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

GENERAL SAFETY

- Everyone wants to have a fun, safe experience at the Event. Please follow all safety instructions of Ford staff and other event rescue personnel.
- If you feel uncomfortable or believe that you cannot safely execute any Event activity, please let a staff member know. We are here to assist.
- Ford and staff reserve the right, in their sole discretion, to remove from the Event anyone we determine to pose an actual or potential threat to the health or safety of any participant or attendee.
- All drivers and passengers are required to sign a waiver before participating in the Event.

SAFE DRIVING

- If you have questions about driving off-road let us know. We are here to help you have fun and learn to drive safely.
- If our personnel determines that your driving poses an actual or potential threat to your safety or the safety of others, Ford personnel reserves the right to terminate your participation in the Event.
- Please note, alcohol and non-prescription performance impairing drugs or substances are prohibited onsite throughout the Event. You may not participate as a driver or a passenger if you are impaired by or have any alcohol or non-prescription performance-impairing drugs in your possession at any time during the Event. If violations occur, Ford personnel reserves the right to terminate your participation in the Event.
- All drivers must be at least 18 years old and hold a valid driver's license.
- No children under the age of 18 may ride in vehicles off-road during the Event.

YOUR VEHICLE

- You are responsible for providing your own Ford vehicle for use during the Event. You are also responsible for providing all necessary fuel and other operating costs for the vehicle.
- You are responsible for ensuring that your vehicle is in a safe operating condition and for determining the effects and potential safety impact of third-party modifications and after-market accessories.
- Your vehicle must be properly registered and insured under state law. If you do not own the vehicle, you must have permission to use the vehicle at the Event. You should bring verifying documentation to the Event.

ILLNESS PROTOCOL

- It is imperative for you (and your guests) to self-monitor for the following symptoms:
 - Fever or chills; Cough; Fatigue; Muscle or body aches; Headache; New loss of taste or smell; Sore throat; Congestion or runny nose; Nausea or vomiting; or Diarrhea.
- Email experiences@ford.com to reschedule should you be experiencing any of the symptoms listed above at the time of your event. In the event of these conditions, the participant can reschedule without charge if capacity allows but will not get a refund.

FORD WELLNESS PROTOCOL

- We are adhering to all local and state guidelines.
- We ask that you please comply with all applicable public health orders.
- Ford is not responsible for transmission of any infectious disease during the Event.

PETS

- Pets are permitted but not recommended. Participants are strongly cautioned that pets will be confined to your vehicle throughout the day and subjected to harsh weather conditions, unfamiliar territory, and unfamiliar people. Pets may also be at risk from or otherwise attract wild animals. Daily travel itineraries will not be delayed or varied to provide time to look for a lost pet.

- No pets are permitted without documentation demonstrating current vaccinations, including rabies. Participants are responsible for supplying all food and water for pets, maintaining control of pets at all times, and ensuring that pets do not interfere with or disturb other participants.
- Pets (other than certified service animals) must be confined to the participant's vehicle or tent or kept on a leash at all times and are never permitted in dining or common areas. Participants are also responsible for removal and disposal of all pet waste in a manner consistent with direction provided by staff.
- Ford and staff reserve the right, in their sole discretion, to remove from the Event anyone whose pet we determine either poses an actual or potential threat to the health or safety of any other participant or attendee or creates a disturbance or otherwise interferes with any participant or attendee.

REMOVAL FROM THE EVENT

- If you are removed from the Event or if your participation in the Event is otherwise terminated for violating any of these terms and conditions, then any other person traveling in your vehicle (whether driver or guest) may also be removed from the Event, and neither you nor any other person traveling in your vehicle will receive a refund of any fees paid for the Event. You also agree to reimburse Ford and/or MANSOR for all reasonable costs incurred in escorting or evacuating you, your guest(s), and your vehicle from the trail.

WEATHER AND UNANTICIPATED EXPERIENCES

- In the event of severe or inclement weather, Ford, MASOR, and/or Event staff may determine that it is in the best interest of safety to either delay or suspend the Event. Weather may impact the length of the trails or your camp experience. If Ford decides to cancel the Event, Ford will look to reschedule the Event or you will get a full refund.

- Ford and MASOR personnel have the authority to take reasonable actions but no legal duty to mitigate on-course risks, including those related to weather, rain, lightning and high winds, and their effect on the course. All participants must comply with the directions of Ford personnel that are intended to mitigate identified or potential course hazards.
- Ford is not liable for any failure which occurs as a result or consequence of any cause beyond the control of Ford, including strikes, labor disputes, government restrictions or regulations, limitations on travel or gathering of groups, limitations or restrictions on hotels, travel or transportation facilities, commodities or supplies, or other calamities or casualties, acts of war, terrorism, disaster, civil disorder, epidemic, pandemic, or public health emergency, or severe weather experience or other Act of God (individually or collectively, a "Force Majeure"). Ford may, in its sole discretion, resume or reschedule any Event which is canceled, postponed or terminated due to Force Majeure.
